

BariRumbles Brass – Roving Street Band

BariRumbles Brass is Singapore's favourite street band playing a variety of toe tapping goodness. The music is inspired by the New Orleans brass band tradition and combines a unique twist of strong contemporary grooves, re-worked pop tunes and music from other cultures. "You gotta hear it to believe it."

The band leader, Tim Stocker (aka BariRumbles) has immersed himself in the music scenes of Sydney, NYC and London and now brings those experiences together in Singapore with this creative and funky group. He's played with band members from Prince, Quantic, Taylor Swift, TV on the Radio, Fela Kuti and Snarky Puppy and is featured on JazzBariSax.com as part of the next generation of specialist Baritone Saxophonists.

Equally suitable as an on-stage act, or a roving-the-crowd party charger, the small acoustic line-up of BariRumbles Brass is not restricted by the confines of a stage and provides your audience a very special "up close and personal" experience that will make your event sizzle for your participants.
